It was brought to our attention that on the Checkpoint A Italian Exam, the Ad in #23 is not clear. A revised version of the exam has been uploaded to our website and it accessible using the same username and password which was sent to you previously.

On the Checkpoint B Spanish Exam, question #18 has two of the same answers. A revised version of the exam has been uploaded with this question updated.

On the Checkpoint B Spanish Exam, the advertisement in #23 was not clear. A revised version of the exam, with a clearer graphic, has been uploaded to our site.

If you have already sent your exams to be copied, I would suggest simply printing the updated page/s from the revised versions to share with the teachers. If you have not put in for your copies, please use the revised exam versions which are now posted on the site.
